Fake Trump probably won't survive the summer when the Gnostic Illuminati turn against him.

Donald Trump's political reality show is unlikely to last beyond this summer because the Gnostic Illuminati (GI) is turning against him, military sources tell the White Helmets. The failure to arrest the Epstein pedophiles caused the deal to fall through, and now, they promise, the real Trump documents will be released. This will prevent the KM from holding on to power using the fake Trump, they say.

As a backstory, GI contacted Trump before the 2016 election and promised to cover up Epstein's extortion tapes if he agreed to help them put an end to the satanic Khazarian mafia line in the West. He agreed.

They had no choice but to cooperate with Trump, since under the old system no one was allowed to approach power unless the KM had blackmail material on him that could guarantee his obedience.

Trump was allowed to run as the underdog against Hillary Clinton because HM had strong evidence of blackmailing him. However, this was stopped and Trump became president.

As evidence, Senator Richard Durbin claims that FBI agents tasked with reviewing the criminal case against Jeffrey Epstein were instructed to "flag" any documents that mentioned President Donald Trump.

The idea was to keep the files hidden from the public as part of the GI Bill signed by Trump. Once in office, Trump kept his promise, cleaning up much of Hollywood.

But when he turned his attention to Washington, D.C., the KM counterattacked and overthrew him by stealing the 2020 election. They then used Joe Biden as a puppet for a third term for Barack Obama.

When Trump returned to power in January of this year, his job was to complete the purge he had begun during his first term. With the help of military white hats like Elon Musk, he launched a major offensive, purging Washington, D.C. Remember how FEMA, USAID, the Department of Education, NASA, and other organizations were shut down?

Then Trump and his allies turned their attention to the great kahuna, the Federal Reserve Board, and their magic money computers. Remember, just two months ago @elonmmusk and DOGE discovered 14 "magic money computers" printing money out of thin air. When people started asking, "How much was stolen?" and "Who stole the money?", XM fought back.

It is now clear that Trump was replaced when he traveled to Canada for the G7 meeting in early June, likely by Jean-Michel de Rothschild and his confidant, Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney.

Back in Washington, D.C., a much diminished and ugly Trump has done a 180-degree turn on just about everything.

He then attempted to start World War III by attacking Iran. When this resulted in perhaps the greatest military defeat in US history, the KM counteroffensive suddenly began to falter.

But what really settled the matter was Trump's infamous announcement that the Epstein documents would never be released, which set off the storm we are all witnessing now as his supporters realized that Trump had either been replaced or betrayed them.

The summer political fun continues as the Obama and Trump factions slander each other as their power crumbles. "A lot of the pedophile elite will be exposed. Watch them blame each other... 'He said, she said,' and turn on each other," says a U.S. Space Force source.

That's why Democrats are suddenly pushing the Epstein material while Trump supporters chant their mantra of election fraud and "Russiagate." See below for details and video from this summer's entertainment.

Needless to say, both sides are holding back because, frankly, both are already on the verge of failure. Remember, we're not talking about seducing pubescent fifteen-year-olds. We're talking about torturing prepubescent children to death on an industrial scale:

Australia 20,000 missing children

Canada 45,000 missing children

Germany 100,000 missing children

India 96,000 missing children

Jamaica 2,000 missing children

Russia 45,000 missing children

Spain 20,000 missing children

UK 112,000 missing children

USA 460,000 missing children

9,000,000 missing children every year

The real numbers are 8 million worldwide, 800,000 of which are in the US alone.

Both sides of this ongoing false political struggle in the United States are involved in this mass murder.

Let's start with Trump's new Zionist fanatic. Here's a picture of Trump and Epstein on a plane. Trump is hugging two children. His middle finger is pointing at the girl, who is biting her knuckles in fear.

Mossad and US military intelligence sources have repeatedly asked us not to publish this image because they were sticking to their agreement to protect Trump. Now they say we can publish it because "Trump" has violated the agreement.

We have had experts examine the photo and they say it is neither AI generated nor computer generated. Our sources say it is real. We have been told that videos of him raping and killing the girl will be released. We would like to hear "Trump's" opinion on this image and the allegations made in connection with the video. We will publish his comments as soon as we receive them.

If more material like this is released, the KhM will no longer be able to use one fake Trump after another to stay in power, as Trump's reputation will be irrevocably tarnished.

We hear from the White Hats that "Trump" will be replaced by Vice President J.D. Vance. This is because the White Hats know that the real Commander-in-Chief Trump is missing in action and presumed dead.

The Dragon Family promises Vance and his team virtually unlimited funding so they can celebrate the anniversary and put an end to the Babylonian system of debt slavery that the Western world currently lives under.

There is a huge difference between the KM trillions that the fake Trump is trying to give away and the Dragon Family funds. The KM funds are debts created out of thin air. This means that they are stolen from the people through inflation and distributed to their cronies. This leaves the people with debts so huge that they will never be able to pay them off. This is the definition of Babylonian debt slavery. The Dragon Family money is backed by real assets and does not require repayment.

Most of the world agrees with the dragon family:

"The World Bank and IMF structures support a reverse Marshall Plan, in which emerging market and developing countries finance the more developed world," explained Brazilian President Lula.

In this regard, Lula called for a reform of the institutions created at Bretton Woods some eighty years ago, as he believes that a "new type of financing" is needed that will give priority to developing countries.

Lula tells Trump he is not the "emperor of the world." He claims the 47th "violates ALL the protocols that should exist between heads of state."

By the way, the "Lula" who chaired BRICS is an avatar, as the original died last year.

In any case, it is clear that unless drastic measures are taken, a bloody revolution is inevitable. To prevent this, the military must remove the impostor who is currently in the White House and is not a member of the CIC. They are legally obliged to remove and arrest him.

If the military does not act, "Trump" will try to create his own Gestapo-type military organization to maintain his power:

If you have a hammer, everything looks like a nail. And if you have $75 billion in new funding for ICE over four years, you — Donald Trump, Stephen Miller, and Tom Homan — are going to use it to fund a massive army that will arrest four million people over the next three years, put them in "detention centers," and deport them.

Remember that they can arbitrarily call you a foreigner in order to have a reason to arrest you.

They also arrest people for speaking out against genocide. In the UK, a retired computer programmer and seven others were recently arrested in Truro, UK, under the Terrorism Act for speaking out against genocide and supporting the Palestine Action movement.

Here's another reason why the military is initiating mass arrests:

Washington, D.C. – Representative Thomas Massie (R-KY) announces the introduction of the PREP Repeal Act. "...The PREP Act is medical malpractice in a state of emergency," said Representative Massie. "The PREP Act of 2005 prevents companies from being held liable for pain and suffering they cause during a presidential emergency. Americans have a right to seek justice when they are harmed by government-mandated products. The PREP Repeal Act would restore that right."

There is evidence that both the new and incorrigible "Trump" and his mentor Benjamin Netanyahu are being overthrown.

"Trump," who was in perfect health in April, now has swollen ankles and bruised arms. The swollen ankles are described as "chronic venous insufficiency" due to old age, and the bruised arms are from "handshakes and aspirin." But remember how Queen Elizabeth died shortly after being seen in public with bruised arms?

Then came this news about Netanyahu:

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu is reportedly battling food poisoning, as well as intestinal inflammation and severe dehydration.

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has been diagnosed with intestinal inflammation and will rest for three days, his office said on Sunday.

Netanyahu's office said in a statement that the prime minister fell ill overnight after being poisoned by tainted food.

It is common knowledge that Netanyahu is the boss of the fake new Trump, and the fact that both of them are falling ill while under serious political attack is a sign that they are being overthrown.

Last week, Netanyahu tried to regain power by declaring war after losing his Knesset majority, while his corruption case continues. This time, he sent troops to Syria, which suffered a crushing defeat at the hands of Turkish forces. This graphic video shows the bodies of Israeli soldiers in a Syrian hospital.

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan said: "Israel is a terrorist state that recognizes neither laws nor principles... Under the pretext of the Druze situation, Israel has transferred its criminal actions to neighboring Syria in the last two days. Israel's aggression is the most serious problem our region faces today. Those who follow Israel's example will sooner or later realize that they have made a serious miscalculation."

Now several Trump administration officials are calling Netanyahu "crazy" and "a child who doesn't want to behave" because of his defeat in Syria.

Speaking of madness, the new "Trump" asked Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky whether his forces would be able to strike Moscow and St Petersburg if the US provided longer-range weapons, the Financial Times reported on Tuesday.

This proved too much for the US military, and now it looks like another of the main killers of the KhM, Volodymyr Zelensky, will also be eliminated:

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky and his top officials are defrauding American taxpayers of hundreds of millions of dollars, investigative journalist Seymour Hersh alleged Wednesday. The alleged fraud even includes deals with Russia itself.

In a new Substack article, Hersh, citing a CIA assessment, claims that Zelensky and his cronies embezzled at least $400 million in U.S. funds intended for diesel fuel last year.

When the military brings in Seymour Hersh, it means they are getting ready to take someone down. In this case, it looks like they are finally going to take down the Zelensky regime.

The military is also hunting for Barack "Satan's Thunder" Obama. US special forces sent us this:

Extortion #17 occurred on August 6, 2011, and was the largest and most brutal betrayal of our military by a president in the history of the United States. That day, 30 American soldiers, including 17 Navy SEALs (all from Team 6), were killed on the orders of Barack Obama. It was calculated, premeditated, and still being covered up.

Families know.

They know EVERYTHING.

Justice will prevail for the fallen.

The US, Israel and Ukraine are now perceived by the rest of the world as terrorist states. Recall that only two countries voted against recognizing the right to food as a human right:

1. USA

2. Israel

Ukraine, for its part, is a criminal state that worships Satan and is involved in human trafficking, biological weapons, drugs and illegal arms trafficking, and whose days are numbered.

Their secret boss, Jean Michel de Rothschild, and his deputy, French President Emmanuel Macron, are also in deep trouble. Less than 10% of the French support his repeated calls to send troops to Ukraine.

The French consider him a globalist and a traitor, and he cannot appear in public for fear of lynching.

Now he appears to be hiring foreign provocateurs to try to justify a state of emergency: "There were 100 to 150 masked men armed with Molotov cocktails, fireworks, stones, iron pipes and baseball bats," police union leader Laurent Nadeau told AFP. Mayor Emile Roger Lomberty called the rioters an "urban guerrilla group." "They are organized, structured, they have a plan, they have weapons," he said. "It was not a spontaneous protest to complain about something. Without a pretext, without anything. It was about destruction and showing that the territory is theirs."

In any case, Macron is on the decline, because after leaving Senegal last week, France found itself kicked out of Africa (except Djibouti), the continent it previously ruled. This means it can no longer steal African resources, condemning itself to bankruptcy.

Another XM satanic clown whose days are numbered is the fake Pope Leo. Archbishop and de facto Pope Carlo Maria Viganò has broken his silence on Pope Leo, saying his actions over the past two months prove he is a Satanist. His plan:

This means the bureaucratization of the church, and we know that bureaucracy is one of the most important instruments of Masonic control. Bureaucrats can, under the pretext of "democratic" and "synodal" procedures, manipulate parishioners, control votes, form a consensus and create the appearance of a spontaneous proposal from below, although in fact it is carefully thought out by those who control the entire organizational apparatus of the synod. This is a colossal fiction.

Let us not forget that during the psycho-pandemic, Bishop Prevost unhesitatingly supported the position on vaccination, recommending the wearing of masks, social distancing and compliance with the senseless and harmful WHO health regulations.

It won't be long before the Roman Catholic Church goes bankrupt because true Catholics will stop donating.

Military action is being taken against these Satanists. The Western media completely ignored the fact that the BRICS countries and the Shanghai Cooperation Organization declared war on these three countries. Here is the Russian government's statement on this matter:

We currently have a regional anti-terrorist structure that has been very busy for many years. Recently, a decision was made to expand its powers to counter new challenges and threats, since terrorism and organized crime, especially drug trafficking, are closely linked.

A decision was made to establish a Multilateral SCO Centre on the basis of the Regional Anti-Terrorism Centre in Tashkent to combat new challenges and threats.

Lavrov also hinted that something had changed with "Trump" when he said:

Washington continued to make specific threats against BRICS, saying that BRICS must be confronted and that it undermines US interests.

In truth, US President D. Trump had previously expressed a somewhat different opinion.

Most countries in the world know that Israel, Ukraine and the United States are world leaders in drug trafficking and terrorism. However, they do not know that the BRICS militaries are actively pursuing their criminal groups.

Fortunately, the current Satanic governments in the West will most likely collapse even without further military action.

This is especially true for the United States. On Wednesday night, Trump told reporters that his administration would notify more than 150 countries that their exports to the United States could soon be subject to tariffs of 10 to 15 percent. In effect, that means the 150 countries will stop trading with the United States.

Brazil, Canada, the EU, China and many other countries are openly talking about ending trade with the US.

The European Union has warned that its trade with the United States could be cut off if Washington follows through on its threat to impose a 30 percent tariff on goods imported from the union.

A tariff of "30% or slightly above 30%... has roughly the same effect. So, in effect, it prohibits trade," said Maroš Šefčovič, the EU trade commissioner, arriving at a meeting of EU ministers in Brussels on Monday.

When "Trump" said that the EU would pay the US for weapons for Ukraine, France, Italy, Hungary, the Czech Republic and others said "NO" and decided not to finance the supply of American weapons to Ukraine.

The US has already exhausted the EU. Russian exporters claim that by forcing the EU to buy expensive US energy, "the petrochemical sector has almost completely ceased its activity... including glass production. This is a whole chain of negative consequences," [Russian President Vladimir] Putin said.

When Trump said he would impose 100% tariffs on all countries trading with Russia, he was laughed at.

US President Donald Trump's statements on Monday are a "theatrical ultimatum" to Moscow that no one is listening to, said Deputy Chairman of the Russian Security Council Dmitry Medvedev.

Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov stated:

Russia wants to understand the meaning of Trump's words about a 50-day period for resolving the Ukrainian issue: "We, of course, want to understand what is behind this statement about 50 days. In the past, there were periods of 24 hours and 100 days. We have seen all this and really want to understand the motives of the American president."

These are just empty words from the man who is presiding over the largest bankruptcy in world history.

Asians have already rebelled against buying expensive American energy:

A tanker carrying Canada's first major shipment of liquefied natural gas has arrived at a South Korean port, ushering in a new era for Canadian energy exports that some feared would never come as the country's natural gas finds new buyers in prestigious Asia-Pacific markets.

Two more tankers have left the LNG Canada terminal and are still en route to ports in Japan and South Korea.

The JKM reference price, which reflects spot LNG prices in Japan, South Korea, China and Taiwan, is currently around three to four times higher than gas prices on the US Henry Hub market.

But the political theater is likely to continue for some time, and it's fun to watch both sides throw mud at each other. Here are some of the dramatic developments from the past week:

"Trump": Their new SCAM is what we will forever call the Jeffrey Epstein SCAM and my FORMER supporters fell for this "nonsense" right away... I don't need their support anymore!

Epstein, subject to appropriate redaction of information regarding victims and other personally identifiable information," they said...

NOW: Justice Department Asks Federal Court to Unseal Grand Jury Transcripts Related to Epstein Cases

Pentagon sources say "the Epstein grand jury transcripts released by Attorney General Pam Bondi will be heavily redacted, will not include the names of witnesses who mentioned co-conspirators, and the 2007 immunity agreement will remain secret."

However, most of the information is already known:

CASE 1: Epstein and Wexner (Victoria's Secret)

Mid 1980s – 2007:

Epstein becomes CFO and attorney general for Les Wexner, the billionaire founder of L Brands (owner of Victoria's Secret).

Epstein uses Wexner's connections to Victoria's Secret to recruit young women under the guise of modeling jobs.

CASE 2: Epstein and Trump (Miss Teen USA/Miss Universe)

1990s – early 2000s:

Trump owns or co-owns several beauty pageants, including:

Miss Teen USA

Miss USA

Miss Universe

Epstein and Trump were friends and often attended events together at Mar-a-Lago.

Epstein: "He's a lot of fun to talk to."

Trump (2002): "Epstein is a great guy... he likes beautiful women, like me, many of them young."

There is even footage from 1992 of Trump and Epstein together at a party at Mar-a-Lago with cheerleaders.

Darryl Cooper and Tucker Carlson on Epstein's threats against journalists who dared to ask questions:

"He finds a bullet on the stairs. And a little later... he finds a severed cat's head on the porch... It was a threat from Jeffrey Epstein."

Senator Ron Wyden: "The U.S. Treasury Department has a dossier that could expose Epstein's financial network, the key to a vast sex trafficking empire. You can't build something that big without a lot of money."

Source: CBS News

Elon Musk: Trump 'should release [Epstein's] documents and point out which parts of them are fake'

Then we learn that Trump's uncle was involved in the MK Ultra project:

White House spokesman Leavitt slams reporter who asked about Trump's MIT uncle and his Unabomber mentor Ted Kaczynski

"There are so many problems in the world that I'm a little surprised that you asked such a question, although I'm not surprised, considering who you are."

In other words, because she cannot or will not answer the question, she insults the person who asked the question.

Overall result:

Only 17% of voters say they approve of Trump's handling of Epstein case: Quinnipiac poll

While we wait for the fall of the fake "Trump", low level KM agents are being eliminated.

Maureen Comey, who prosecuted Jeffrey Epstein and is the daughter of former FBI Director James Comey, was fired from her job at the U.S. Attorney's Office in Manhattan on Wednesday.

Senator Ted Cruz will probably be next. Look at his face when Tucker Carlson asks him, "Did you take money from Israel-IPact?"

While the Western world continues to crumble, China is far ahead economically. It recently announced a magnetic levitation train capable of traveling at 600 kilometers per hour (373 miles per hour). If the U.S. had one, it would be possible to travel from New York to Washington, D.C., in 40 minutes, rather than the four hours it takes today.

Meanwhile, a revolution is taking place in Japan. The ruling party has lost its majority in the upper house of parliament due to a mass uprising by young people. A new party, Sanseito, has won. It accuses the government of, among other things, mass murder through vaccination and of bringing foreign criminals into the country.

"Sanseito first rose to prominence on YouTube during the COVID-19 pandemic, where he spread conspiracy theories about vaccinations and the global elite," corporate media described him as.

Here's what the Japanese commentator said:

"People are angry because they can't earn a decent income no matter what they do. They know they won't get a pension. The government is corrupt and inactive. Another thing is that they get their information from social media, YouTube and mobile devices, ignoring traditional state newspapers and TV channels."

The long-ruling LDP enjoys the support of only 10% of people under 50. Among those aged 70 and over, the level is 35-40%.

Yutaka Motokawa, a statistics analyst, says: "There is a sense of social collapse. More and more people feel that the country is being destroyed by the existing political parties and government."

The same can be said about all the G7 countries still under the control of the KhM. The revolution is in full swing.

So, President Vance, what about the Dragon Family's proposal? It's either that or torches and pitchforks.
