White Hats Must Start Making Arrests to Avoid French Revolution-Style Bloodbath in the West

Public anger in the West against their governments is reaching boiling point. This means that either the military police will do their job and arrest the criminals who have seized civilian power, or we will face bloody anarchy. This is no longer a fringe opinion; it is the opinion of the majority of the military and law enforcement. As we mentioned last week, they have been issued a writ of habeas corpus, obliging them to uphold the law, as is their duty. We now learn that the long-delayed trial will begin in September. The pretext for this delayed action will be the Epstein case.

FBI Deputy Director Dan Bongino (@FBIDDBongino) writes:

During my time here as Deputy Director of the FBI... what I learned in our just and necessary investigations into the aforementioned [Epstein] cases shook me to my core. We cannot run a republic this way. I will never be the same for what I learned.

We will conduct these investigations fairly and accurately in accordance with the rules and the law.

He expresses the opinion of the majority in law enforcement agencies.

On military affairs, Field Marshal Douglas MacGregor writes:

The Jeffrey Epstein scandal didn't end with his death in federal prison; it spread. The inexplicable leniency shown by successive administrations is a testament to the bipartisan system that protects a network that spans Clinton World, Silicon Valley, and Mar-a-Lago. After the fall of the French monarchy, the revolution that followed unleashed years of violence and chaos. Few Americans would want that to happen here.

The police and military must follow the law, arrest the elite criminals responsible for mass murder and give them a fair trial to prevent them from being dragged from their homes and hung from lamp posts or burned at the stake.

Even if the military's top brass is slow, justice is definitely moving forward. Remember, this isn't just about election fraud and rich old men with young girls; this is genocide. This isn't going to go away on its own.

Last week, a trial began in the Netherlands against Bill Gates, Pfizer CEO Albert Bourla and World Economic Forum Chairman Klaus Schwab over COVID-19 policy and vaccine harm.

One of the lawyers in the case, Arno van Kessel, was arrested and taken away blindfolded by a paramilitary police team the day after he filed his pre-trial papers. He is being held in a maximum-security prison in the Netherlands.

That didn't stop his colleague Peter Stassen from calling the defendants' crimes by their proper names: "biological warfare, genocide, mass murder, fraud and violence." The judge will deliver his verdict in six weeks.

In September, a judge will likely find the men guilty of genocide, giving the military the legal pretext it needs to begin making arrests that should have been made long ago.

The US Congress will also be back in session in September, after adjourning early to avoid hearings into the Epstein case. So there will be a flood of information in September. And we are talking about mass murder, not just rich old men raping young girls.

According to the Department of Homeland Security, during the Biden administration, nearly 300,000 children have been released to unaccompanied minors and disappeared:

NGOs received more than $6 billion from the Biden-Harris administration, which transferred unaccompanied alien children (UACs) to these organizations, mostly at the border, who in turn transferred them to unvetted sponsors, leading to more than 300,000 children going missing in the country. At the same time, many of these NGOs and their leaders received significant increases in revenue and salaries thanks to the grants.

ABSOLUTE MADNESS

The Biden administration set up a hotline that unaccompanied minors could call if they had problems with strangers they were placed with.

65,000 calls to this hotline have gone unanswered

As these children's cries for help went unanswered, from El Paso to places like Greenwich, New York...all were flown by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) on unmarked passenger planes full of unaccompanied children. The children were typically trafficked and given short lives of sexual exploitation, snuff films, and organ trafficking.

Here is a specific example of children aged 3 to 10 being kept as sex slaves:

Several children have been rescued from a secret underground bunker in Alabama where they were held and abused for more than a year.

Authorities say children aged between three and 10 were raped and trafficked by a group of men who sold them to clients for sex work.

The main question is whether US President Donald Trump will ensure justice in this matter or not?

We still have not been able to confirm the safety of the 6-foot-3 Trump, who has not been seen since the G7 meeting in Canada in early June.

But the short, fat "Trump" we've seen since June now appears to be taking instructions from his minions on how to resolve the Epstein case. This "Trump" has apparently reached an agreement with Ghislaine

Maxwell on sacrificing enough people to quell public outrage. Maxwell is granted immunity and testifies against over 100 people.

Here are some names that have come to light:

Debi and Bola von Bismarck

The Duchess and Duke of York, that is, Prince Andrew and Sarah Ferguson

Barbara and Bert Fie Guggenheim

Maria Habsburg

Mick Jagger

Ted Jr. Kennedy

Bobby and Mary Kennedy

Ethel Kennedy

Joe Kennedy

Senator Edward Kennedy

Henry Kissinger

Courtney Love

Peter Mandelson

Rupert Murdoch

Hannah Rothschild

Jessica Rothschild

Jeffrey Sachs

Kevin Spacey

Ivana Trump

Francesca von Habsburg

Tim Cook

Alan Dershowitz

Eileen Guggenheim

John Kerry

David Rockefeller

Scotland Yard

Ministry of Internal Affairs

Another person on the list was Simon Case. He was a cabinet minister and the de facto head of the British government. Case was personally involved in blocking the Future Planning Agency. He is no longer in government.

Notably absent from this "leak" are Hillary and Bill Clinton, as well as many other famous visitors to Epstein's island. This illustration illustrates the plan:

Interestingly, "Trump" seems willing to sacrifice his ex-wife Ivana. "Trump" also calls for the arrest of Kamala Harris, Beyonce and Oprah. "Trump" also calls for the arrest of "Barack Hussein Obama, Hillary Clinton, Joe Biden, Comey, Clapper and their entire gang" for treason and stealing the 2020 election. The punishment is death.

His people are also leaking information (as our readers already know) that Obama is the grandson of Adolf Hitler. Here is what the CIA has provided us on this matter:

Hitler did NOT die in the bunker in 1944. He killed his butler, who was also his double. He fled to Argentina with other SS members, where he lived a long life. He died in a car accident in 1957. Eva Braun went there with him and their daughter Anne, born in 1942.

During their stay in Argentina, Eva and Adolf had three daughters, who were taken to Germany to be raised in their "homeland." Their names are Angela, Teresa, and Dalia.

After Hitler's death in Argentina in 1957, Eva Braun changed her name to Madeline Lee Payne, took her daughter Ann with her, and moved to the United States. She married Stanley Dunham and took the name Madeline Dunham. Ann became Stanley Ann Dunham.

Anne was 19 when she became pregnant by a Kenyan named Barack Obama. She moved to Kenya and gave birth to a son, Barry. Over time, she realized that the man she "married" was already married with children, so she returned to America with her son. Shortly after returning to America, she married Lolo Soetoro and gave birth to her second child, daughter Maya.

Hitler was also a Rothschild. His mother was Clara Polzi, who worked as a maid in the Austrian home of Salomon Mayer Rothschild, where she became pregnant by him. She returned to Germany to give birth to Adolf, and then married Alois Schickelgruber, who later changed his name to Hitler. Bloodlines are very important to the Illuminati, and they keep their children on farms or have illegitimate children to spread their bloodline far and wide.

About Barry Soetoro. If you've read this far, your jaw is dropped. Let me clarify. Barry Soetoro, Barack Obama II, Hitler's grandson, is a Rothschild by blood. Perhaps that explains why his aunt, German Chancellor Angela Merkel, kissed him and looked at him so tenderly during a visit. His two other aunts are Theresa May, the former British prime minister, and Dalia Grybauskaite, the president of Lithuania.

According to European intelligence sources, Obama and Hitler signed an agreement with Microsoft that gave them control over the entire U.S. government cyber infrastructure. Microsoft then gave Chinese citizens access to the Department of Defense's secure cyber systems.

Even if all the people Trump is now exposing were to be held accountable for treason and war crimes, this exposure would hardly calm public opinion, since too many people know the truth about the mass murder of children committed by both sides.

An agency source said the FBI's evidence in the case of convicted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein "includes 40 computers and electronic devices, 26 data storage devices, more than 70 compact discs and six recording devices. The devices contain more than 300 gigabytes of data."

Tucker Carlson, a supporter of the real Trump, boldly claimed at the Turning Point USA student action summit on Friday that Jeffrey Epstein was a Mossad agent who committed horrific crimes on American soil, including human trafficking and extortion. He criticized "Trump" for refusing to answer questions about the pedophile ring amid yet another explosive Justice Department disclosure about Epstein.

The real question is: "Why did he do it, in whose name and where did the money come from?"

"Follow the money" is definitely one way to look at this issue. These Satanic criminals are using the Federal Reserve's magical printing press to maintain power. For example, Pete Buttigieg's Department of Transportation spent $80 billion on DEI grants while holding up upgrades to air traffic control systems and registries, industry insiders tell the New York Post.

This is just the tip of the iceberg. "Remember a few months ago when DOGE discovered that $4.7 trillion was missing from the Treasury. I have no idea what that money was spent on. It was impossible to trace. It seems like it really matters, after all, it was $4.7 trillion! Why did that news disappear?" comments analyst Edward Dowd.

Elon Musk, who has been trumpeting this money, has suddenly gone silent. Now he is talking about a possible valuation of Tesla at $20 trillion. "This could be the world's largest money laundering operation," a Pentagon spokesman comments.

With soaring car sales, fake space launches and people dressed as robots, it's hard to find any rational reason why he's the "richest man in the world."

Another bubble like Tesla is Nvidia, which is now considered the most valuable company in the world.

Michael Burry, the man who predicted the 2008 subprime mortgage crisis early on, recently bet on Nvidia, the company at the center of the artificial intelligence boom.

While investors are jumping on tech like it's the second coming, Berry is quietly exiting the game, dumping much of his portfolio and betting big on companies like Nvidia.

The AI behind all this hype is fundamentally flawed: it can't fact-check, can't remember its previous answers, provides false data, hallucinates, and is essentially an unverified plagiarism.

We hear about the dissolution of the Federal Reserve Bank (FRB) and that this parasitic source of counterfeit money flowing into the stock market will soon be closed. FRB Chairman Jerome Powell has resigned, but for some reason this is not being reported in North America.

Also not reported is that Japanese Prime Minister Shigeru Ishiba will resign, which would mean an end to the flow of Japanese money needed to keep the American government's reality TV operation running.

But as hedge fund manager Spencer Hakimian notes:

Japan has already entered the market and fully delivered on the $550 billion "investment promise" to Trump. Now they are claiming that private companies are the real decision makers and $500 billion is just a "target." If you are not in business, I will translate for you: "You don't see a dollar, idiots!"

Now Trump says the EU will "buy $750 billion in energy from the US" and invest another $600 billion.

Note that there is no graph. Industry in the EU is already closing down because it is forced to buy expensive energy from the US and cannot afford to pay more.

Example: The Netherlands is introducing electricity rationing for the first time – specifically, this means that large consumers will not be able to use electricity during peak hours, and households will not be able to use electricity.

Holland produces electricity

In addition, 30% of German companies with investment plans in the US have postponed their projects and 15% have cancelled them due to uncertainty surrounding US President Donald Trump's tariff policy, according to an Ifo survey published on Thursday.

The reality is that the FRB and its American and European subsidiaries are bankrupt. As evidence, opposition leader Viktor Medvedchuk claims that "Kyiv did not pay its loans on June 2, 2025, which means that it can no longer be denied that Ukraine has entered into default."

It is now also clear that Ukrainian dictator Volodymyr Zelensky has been removed from power. For the first time since the Maidan coup of 2014, mass protests against the Ukrainian government are taking place. These protests would not have been possible if the decision had not been made to remove the Zelensky government.

Now he looks very tense as you can see below:

Poland is perhaps one of the countries that will be relieved to see him go. According to Polish intelligence, Ukrainian agents in Poland have been poisoning wells, setting fire to apartment buildings and committing other acts of sabotage, and the authorities are refusing to confront them.

The weapons that the West supplied to the Kyiv regime were distributed among criminal and terrorist organizations around the world. They were supplied to the Middle East, Africa, Mexican drug cartels, and now Ukrainian weapons have reached Brazilian cities.

Now "Trump," elected on a promise to end the war in Ukraine within 24 hours, says he "hopes" for peace in Ukraine "by 2029." You can see his envoy Steve Witkoff telling Lara Trump here.

It is obvious that the Khazarian mafia hopes to buy enough time to complete their plan to overthrow the governments of Europe with the help of foreign hordes.

Retired German General Christoph Gomar claims that mass immigration is industrialized and organized: "This invasion of Europe by migrants from Muslim countries and Black Africa is planned, controlled and accepted.

Those who allow migrants to enter are complicit in all the murders committed on our soil: they must be tried and punished, as in the war. This is a well-planned and systematic invasion: denounce Islamism and you will be branded as a racist and even prosecuted thanks to the laws passed by our politicians. We know that Turkey issues fake passports and the host authorities turn a blind eye.

New data shows that 40% of all suspects in school violence identified in 2024 were not German citizens, with the majority of them being Syrians. There are 1.2 million Syrians out of a population of 83 million in Germany.

One commenter writes: "My state is 95 percent white and literally every violent crime reported by the mainstream media involves black people."

Here's another inconvenient truth, according to Polish intelligence: "The total number of Polish and foreign agents in Poland could be between 30,000 and 55,000, which poses a threat to Poland." Polish intelligence adds that most of these agents are Jewish and act against the interests of the average Pole. They note that in the decade of the 1970s and 1980s, GDP grew by about 80%. At the time, the poverty rate was 24%. Since 1982 (the year the crisis was triggered by the Mossad-funded Solidarity movement), the proportion of people living below the poverty line in Poland is estimated at more than 60%.

The German police state is doing its best to maintain this chaos. Thousands have been arrested for exposing inconvenient truths about the migrant invasion. In the latest case, German police raided the home of an AfD MEP for the 22nd time, this time while he was meeting Republicans in Washington. "Each of these 22 searches was illegal," AfD member Petr Bystron said.

It is no longer taboo to say such things. For the first time, the Dutch government has officially called the Zionist state of Israel a "threat to the country."

The Dutch anti-terror agency accuses Israel of political interference and disinformation campaigns.

The agency also expressed concern about threats from Israel and the United States against the ICC. A new report by the Dutch National Coordinator for Security and Counter-Terrorism (NCTV) highlights Israeli attempts to influence public opinion in the Netherlands and interfere in political processes through disinformation campaigns.

Similar reactions are seen across the Western world.

In Slovakia, citizens have launched a mass movement to hold a referendum on leaving the EU and NATO.

In Britain, "we are effectively facing, in many parts of the country, a real societal collapse," warns the new British Prime Minister Nigel Farage, adding: "People are afraid to go out to the shops, they are afraid to let their children out. Society is collapsing, and it is happening very, very quickly."

Farage also suggested that Britain should leave the European Court of Human Rights to restore an effective deterrent to criminal law.

"We are faced with a real social collapse."

Nigel Farage MP has said our society is "rapidly deteriorating" due to high crime rates.

— UK News (@GBNEWS) July 21, 2025

Farage also says: "They basically lied to us about the Covid-19 vaccine – they knew all along." When he becomes prime minister, you can be sure he will demand justice.

The situation has reached the point where Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orban has declared that there is a real threat of World War III. As evidence, Orban cited opinion polls that show that "55% of the French, 50% of the Spanish, 46% of the Italians, 45% of the Americans, 41% of the British and 41% of the Germans believe that World War III will break out within 5-10 years."

The key to preventing total war is to free the American people from Babylonian debt slavery. At the height of the American slave economy: -40% of the population owned slaves. -78% of slave owners were Jews. Things have only gotten worse since then.

A prime example is the FBI's Terrorist Designation Database (TSDB). It is essentially an illegal BLACKLIST used to threaten, harass, and intimidate people into compliance. It includes children as young as three years old, and 97% of the 278,000 names in the TSDB have no known connection to terrorism. There is no way to challenge someone's inclusion in the TSDB.

FBI agents and managers receive bonuses for every name added.

Organ theft is becoming increasingly common in the United States, according to a Senate hearing. In one case in 2021, a Kentucky man was willing to have his organs harvested despite shaking his head and pulling his knees up to his chest.

"Frankly, this story is more suited to a horror movie than a congressional hearing," said Rep. Neil Dunn (D-Fla.).

The XM gets away with these crimes because Americans have been subjected to a lifetime of intense brainwashing by their secret slave masters. They have also been subjected to sophisticated disinformation campaigns involving masked men posing as politicians. Here is a reminder of all the masked hoaxes we encounter:

Are you so sure that the person on the TV screen is really who you think he is?

— illuminatibot (@illuminatibot) July 22, 2025

The latest example of such lies: former FBI Director James Comey criticizes the Justice Department for firing his daughter for helping cover up the Epstein and P. Diddy trials. Watch his eyes as he reads the text in the video below.

Notice the two different photos. This is not the same James Comey. Notice the chin, nose, prominent cheeks, hair, hairline, teeth, and narrower head. Where is the original? Already in Guantanamo or executed?

To perpetuate this scam, the Israeli government is paying for the training of 16 MAGA (MIGA) social media influencers with millions of followers so they can master the techniques of spreading messages.

MAGA Going to Israel for Propaganda Training

July 20, 2025

The Israeli government is paying to have 16 MAGA social media influencers, with millions of followers, brought to Israel to learn how to stop American youth from turning against Tel Aviv over Gaza, writes Joe Lauria.

As another example of mind control by the QM, Harvard professors reported that the "Virtual Telescope Project" had detected an alien spacecraft approaching Earth.

This is obviously alien invasion horror porn because "virtual" means unreal.

By the way, as a non-Zionist Jew, I can say that real Jews are among the main victims of the KM. Here is an example: on February 18, 1943, Zionist Rabbi Isaac Greenbaum, head of the Jewish Agency Rescue Committee in New York, declared in a speech to the Zionist Council: "One cow in Palestine is worth more than all the Jews in Europe." The Holocaust was a burnt offering, or sacrifice, of the Jews to Satan, and Israel is a Satanic state. Judea will soon replace it.

This was a Palestinian beach. The photo is from 1944, when Israel still didn't exist...

The revolt against the KM is gathering momentum everywhere. Even Christian Zionists, who have been indoctrinated supporters of Israel until now, are rising up. Israel is suspending visas and creating so many problems for American evangelicals that the US ambassador to Israel, Mike Huckabee, is publicly complaining. He threatened "serious consequences" after visiting a Christian town under attack by settlers. During a tour of Taibe, Huckabee declared that "desecrating a church, a mosque or a synagogue is a crime..."

There are consequences for Jewish attackers in the US

Jewish military and intelligence services are also revolting. Leaked data shows Mossad has denied Israeli Justice Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's claim of an Iranian bomb.

In Australia, an officer's security clearance was revoked and he left the Australian military because the country's intelligence service considered him more loyal to Israel.

In Canada, the government will no longer fund hotel accommodation for asylum seekers. The funding will end in September.

Meanwhile, Chinese State Council Premier Li Qiang announced the start of construction of a hydroelectric power station in the lower reaches of the Yarlongzanbo River.

The total investment is estimated at approximately 1.2 trillion yuan (about 167.8 billion US dollars).

This will create a huge amount of work and demand for equipment such as heavy trucks, and will provide China with cheap energy. At the same time, China will control India's water supply.

As we have said over and over again, if the West does not rid itself of the XM parasitic infection, it is only a matter of time before we all end up in the service of the Chinese.
