It's September and mass arrests have already begun.

It's September and the campaign to dismantle the deep state has definitely begun. What's happening is a committee of 300 deep state members has teamed up with the white hats to bring down the Clinton/Rockefeller/Obama/Hitler bloodline that is part of the deep state.

The white hats are tired of avatars being killed and replaced with doubles. This time they are demanding public trials of people like Killary Clinton and Barack "Satan's Thunder" Obama, who are accused of torturing and murdering young children. They and their cabal accomplices will also be held accountable for mass murder via vaccines, among other things. It must be public and in full view of the planet.

One way to look for evidence that something is going on is to use a modern version of train tracking called a "pizza tracker." It monitors the number of deliveries to various key locations. It recently detected increased activity near the Pentagon , which usually means something big is brewing.

This is probably the defeat of Hitler's group. We have already published a video of Killary and her lover, Huma Abedin, torturing a young girl to death. We have also published a photo of a young girl being tortured to death by Obama. Here is another photo of her on a boat with Obama, sitting next to George Clooney, who is buttoning his pants with a genuinely unhappy look.

US President Donald Trump, or rather Trump's white-hatted avatar, has released a video of Obama's arrest. Our sources say Obama is in hiding but will soon be tracked down and brought to justice.

There is no doubt that Obama and Clinton's cronies are being systematically removed from power.

A woman with dark hair and a grey jacket sits at a table with a serious expression on her face. It looks like she is discussing or interrogating something.

Perhaps the most high-profile person to be fired was Federal Reserve Chair Lisa Cook. Cook (pictured) was fired for mortgage fraud and has filed a lawsuit in which she does not deny the mortgage fraud but claims that President Trump's "proposed termination on August 25, 2025... is illegal and invalid, and that Chairwoman Cook remains a sitting member of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System."

My own sources tell me that Cook was funneling counterfeit Fed money to Obama, which was used, among other things, to fund illegal immigrants to enter the US and destabilize the country. She was hired by Obiden, and I guarantee it was out of loyalty, not talent. In any case, without an endless stream of counterfeit Fed money to pay its goons, Obama is finished.

Another woman facing removal from office is Kamala Harris. Trump on Thursday revoked Harris' Secret Service protection, according to a copy of a letter reviewed by CNN. Our sources say Harris offered to speak out about Clinton and Obama in exchange for a lighter sentence.

Here are the photos of the real Bill and Hillary Clinton-Rockefeller, who were arrested in the Hamptons last week. Look how old and haggard Killary looks. Bill also looks like he's on the verge of death. Both should be kept alive for a public trial and then, if found guilty, publicly executed.

One of the heroes of this "white operation" was Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard, who told Trump: "Mr. President, you have tasked me with finding the truth and telling it to the American people, and in recent weeks we have uncovered some of the worst examples of intelligence being weaponized... I will continue to carry out that mission and follow that path wherever it leads. Transparency and truthfulness are what will ensure real accountability to the American people, who deserve it."

And that's where things got interesting.

As Director of National Intelligence, Tulsi Gabbard spent months shaking Washington with sensational news about the 2017 Russian coup.

When Trump asked her to speak, she said corruption in the intelligence community was even worse

Gabbard also fired about half of the DNI staff, allegedly because they were Satanic spies.

Portrait of John Ratcliffe, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), against the backdrop of the American flag.

Now CIA Director John Ratcliffe is in the line of fire after he resisted an order to declassify a document related to Russian election interference.

By the way, if you still don't believe we're dealing with Satanists, take a look at this photo of Dr. Demetre Daskalakis, who just resigned as director of the National Center for Immunization and Respiratory Diseases. He has a pentagram pinned to his chest!

He was one of at least 600 vaccine industry mass murderers recently fired from the CDC.

By the way, as a reminder of how much Westerners have been brainwashed into complete stupidity, watch this short video of sheep skulls during the plandemic.

Now, the FDA has officially revoked the emergency authorization for COVID-19 shots. This allowed mass injections of these toxins to occur without any safety testing. This means that mRNA vaccines, which are still being sold by pharmaceutical companies, are effectively banned.

The White Hats' next move could be to replace Donald Trump as figurehead leader. This is because the real Trump has not been seen since he left for the G7 summit in Canada in early June.

Evidence has emerged that White House Press Secretary Carolyn Leavitt has been replaced by a Chinese robot. This is a video of her upgraded model that will be released soon.

Okay, this is ironic, of course, but the Chinese say that within three years they will create robots indistinguishable from humans.

Here's the robot that will greet visitors to the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation summit in China this week.

We present this to confirm to readers that many of our so-called leaders are already a combination of human actors and computer graphics reading scripts written by hidden controllers. This means that we must take steps to reassert human control before AI actually uses robots to take over our leadership.

Which brings us back to Trump. With the real Trump missing, white hat hackers are considering announcing his death and replacing him with Vice President J.D. Vance, who is a real person with a brain of his own.

This is why we see numerous reports of Trump having swollen ankles and bruised arms, as well as official statements that he has "chronic venous insufficiency."

Remember that Queen Elizabeth was depicted with bruises on her arms shortly before her death.

Now we receive reports like this:

When Vice President J.D. Vance first walked into the Oval Office, he noted the curtains ("dark and gloomy"), but he insists he won't try them on for a future visit to the Resolute Desk.

"I've had a lot of good training on the job over the last 200 days," Vance told USA TODAY in an exclusive interview on Aug. 27, when asked if he was ready to take on the role of commander in chief.

The White Hats also appear to have sent troops into Obama-Hitler strongholds such as Washington, Los Angeles, Chicago and 19 other locations. The video below shows armed National Guard troops patrolling a Washington, D.C. metro station.

This is because Hitler's faction has placed enough armed gorillas in these areas to overwhelm the police. Now Trump in his white hat wrote:

George Soros and his wonderful son, the radical leftist, should be held accountable under RICO for supporting violent protests and much more all over the United States... We will no longer allow these lunatics to divide America... Soros and his group of psychopaths have done great damage to our country! Including his crazy friends on the West Coast. Be careful, we are watching you!

Of course, the Hitler faction is instead hoping to restore their militant Trump to power to prevent disaster. As part of that effort, they posted this photo of an obviously fake Trump. This "Trump" writes, "It was great playing golf with Jon Gruden – a really nice guy and genuine person!"

They plan to use their Trump to try to start World War III in the Middle East again. Russia has already evacuated all its diplomats from Israel, and the US has withdrawn most of its troops from Iraq. Of course, these messianic fanatics do not understand that a new war against Iran will lead to the final destruction of Israel and its replacement by Judea.

Hitler's faction is still actively killing or trying to kill "white hats" and "gray hats" who have changed sides.

An example is when real Trump ally, former New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani, stopped to help a domestic violence victim and was rear-ended by a car at "HIGH SPEED". He suffered a broken spine, cuts and bruises.

Official Statement For Immediate Release

On the evening of August 30, 2025, in New Hampshire, Mayor Giuliani was involved in a motor vehicle accident. Prior to the incident, he was flagged down by a woman who was the victim of a domestic violence incident. Mayor Giuliani immediately rendered assistance and contacted 911. He remained on scene until responding officers arrived to ensure her safety.

Following this, while traveling on the highway, Mayor Giuliani's vehicle was struck from behind at high speed. He was transported to a nearby trauma center, where he was diagnosed with a fractured thoracic vertebrae, multiple lacerations and contusions, as well as injuries to his left arm and lower leg.

His business partner and medical provider were promptly contacted and arrived at the hospital to oversee his care.

At this time, no further updates are available.

This is the only statement authorized by Mayor Giuliani.

Another person likely killed by the group was former Secretary of the National Security and Defense Council of Ukraine Andriy Parubiy. Parubiy was a neo-Nazi politician linked to the snipers who carried out the Euromaidan massacre in Kyiv in 2014.

Sources in Russia's FSB claim he struck a plea bargain in which he promised to reveal the exact identities of those who orchestrated the 2014 coup and massacre in exchange for amnesty.

By the way, we already know that this was organized by Victoria Nuland from the State Department on orders from the death cult "Chabad". They wanted to exterminate the population of Ukraine in order to create a new homeland for the Satanists.

Now it's time for revenge. JD Vance says:

The Biden administration had no plan to end the war, no real, credible theory of how another hundred billion dollars would solve the problem... It was like a bizarre money grab, throwing money at a problem without any real plan to solve it... Biden's approach allowed Zelenskyy to get funding without any real purpose, any real diplomacy, any real understanding of what we were going to buy with that hundred billion.

Hey Vance, in case you didn't know, that money funded bioweapons, political bribes, and the mass murder of Ukrainian men, as well as the enslavement of Ukrainian women and children. Here's a hint: Canada's former crime minister Justin Trudeau was worth $10 million in 2020. By the end of 2022, it was worth $385 million. As prime minister, he made $351,000. Where are his tax returns?

We heard that former Ukrainian dictator Volodymyr Zelensky is now explaining exactly how Ukrainian money went to politicians like him. He also allowed Ukrainian men to leave the country, leading to a mass exodus from the concentration camp that Ukraine had become. This exodus is captured in the video below.

According to sources in the Russian FSB, Zelensky also talks about child trafficking and much more.

Since the start of the pandemic, workers around the world have lost $3.7 trillion, while billionaires have received a record $3.9 trillion.

It's the fastest and largest transfer of capital in history, but no one wants to talk about it.

By the way, have you noticed how the media has been completely silent about Epstein's island lately? It's part of a desperate attempt to control our thoughts by censoring the internet. The result is that Western Europe is under Orwellian control.

In the UK, up to 30 people are arrested every day for minor offences such as "retweets and cartoons".

For example, three girls were just murdered at a Taylor Swift-themed dance party in Southport, England. Bernadette Spofforth reposted another user's post on X, blaming the horrific crime on newly arrived migrants, adding in her retweet: "If this is true."

A few days later, four police cars pulled up to her home and Spofforth, 56, a successful businesswoman from Chester, was arrested.

In another case, police in Scotland have charged a 14-year-old girl who was seen on video wielding an axe and a knife while allegedly defending herself and her sister from two migrants, police confirmed to the Daily Caller News Foundation on Tuesday.

A viral video that has been viewed nearly 40 million times on the X site and is said to be linked to the arrest shows two girls screaming at each other and at least two suspected migrants who allegedly tried to attack one of the girls. Two men are seen begging them to leave them alone, with one brandishing an axe and a large knife. Police arrived at the scene to arrest them but have not charged any of the men in the video, the DCNF said.

Elon Musk says the British government is "committing treason... and enabling a rape epidemic among its own people." He promises to fund "both civil and criminal prosecutions" and advises: "Start by condemning the vile and uncooperative people in positions of power in the UK who enabled a rape epidemic among their own people or turned a blind eye to their responsibility."

Start by condemning the sycophants and collaborators in positions of power in Britain who have contributed to the epidemic of rape among their own population or turned a blind eye to their responsibility.

Both civil and criminal prosecution are necessary.

Elon Musk's tweet in which he regards the government's actions as treason to the people.

Since Musk is a representative of a powerful faction in the US military, this means that some active action against the traitorous government led by blackmailed paedophile Keir Starmer is likely.

The same scenario is unfolding in Germany, France and elsewhere. One of the main goals of this censorship is to try to contain public discontent with the influx of criminals, conscripts and non-Christians. These invaders are successfully achieving their goal of destroying the Western world. Last week, German Chancellor Friedrich Merz admitted in a historic speech that Germany's social security system can no longer be financed at its current level. What he failed to mention, however, is that immigrants make up 18% of the population but 64% of those living on welfare.

If you want to hear more, watch this woman's speech, who brilliantly explains how everything that is happening now was planned long ago by the Muslim Brotherhood.

Every smug idiot chanting "liberate Palestine" is a brainless sheep manipulated by the Muslim Brotherhood through Qatar and a weaponized culture of resentment.

If you want to hear more, watch this woman's speech, who brilliantly explains how everything that is happening now was planned long ago by the Muslim Brotherhood.

The Muslim Brotherhood is a Nazi- and Chabad-funded organization. All the horror that is happening in Gaza is a Chabad production, an attempt to spark a long-planned World War III between Muslims and Christians. That is why they publish daily photographs of tragically suffering but cute little children in Gaza. Many of the most horrific photographs are probably taken in the rooms underneath Chabad buildings.

Here you see the streets of Frankfurt filled with THOUSANDS of people supporting Gaza and demanding justice, not silence.

Gaza is a test case of what those in power can do to anyone who refuses to submit. Israel uses facial recognition software, conducts total surveillance with drones, and kills anyone who protests or reports what is happening. And then they are labeled as terrorists or enemies of the state.

Gaza is a test run for what the powerful can do to anyone who doesn't agree to be ruled. Israel is using facial recognition software, complete drone surveillance, killing anyone who dissents or reports. And then smearing them afterwards as terrorists, or enemies of the state.

Cenk Uygur's tweet discussing the use of facial recognition and drone surveillance in Gaza highlights the suppression of dissent and subsequent labeling of dissenters as terrorists.

Newly released emails from former Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak reveal Jeffrey Epstein's deep involvement in the surveillance industry after his conviction, including partnerships with spy tech startups and connections to powerful global moguls like Peter Thiel — painting a chilling picture of Epstein's transition from sex crimes to mass surveillance ambitions.

Journalist Whitney Webb investigates the connections between Jeffrey Epstein, Peter Thiel, and the "deep state" mafia that allegedly controls our government. The Main Core database, which contains information on Americans the government deems hostile, could be used during a national crisis. Software company Palantir plays a key role in processing this data and turning it into useful information.

Data profiling company Palantir is working on predictive policing, a concept legitimized under the Trump administration. It involves using data from a variety of sources, including social media and smart devices, to predict criminal activity. Carbine 911, a Peter Thiel-funded company, is taking over the 911 emergency number nationwide and can collect data from your phone when you call. That data is used to predict future crime hotspots, contributing to a larger system of preemptive crime prevention.

This means that if you say out loud something like "Benjamin Netanyahu should go to jail," you could instantly become the target of a drone or a missile.

This type of control will fail in the face of the mass uprising that is now beginning:

A diabolical, systematic pedophile cult with a history dating back nearly 9,000 years is facing the biggest threat it has ever faced: exposure.

A man with a beard and a kippah speaks passionately to an audience.

Israeli MK Avi Maoz (pictured) is now leading the campaign in the Knesset. His warning is explosive: Netanyahu is not just tolerating paedophilia, or protecting the powerful men behind it – he is rewriting the law itself, making their crimes against children completely legal.

Too many people have woken up and realized that targeted killings can silence us as they once did. Remember: together we win, divided we become slaves.

An example is the largest mass protests against immigration in Australian history that are currently taking place. Tens of thousands of people are taking part in the "March for Australia" protests in:

- Sydney
- Melbourne
- Brisbane
- Perth
- Adelaide -
Canberra
- Darwin
- Townsville
- Cairns

Dismantling the U.S. Department of Education would also help stop efforts to make us stupid or ignorant. Under this policy, more than half of schools and districts across the country are implementing a system of equal grading. This means "the five principles of fair grading: unlimited retakes, no penalties for lateness, no zeros, no homework, and mandatory attendance."

In a study in Schenectady County, more than half of middle school students (grades 6–8) were three or more grade levels behind in both reading and math, while daily attendance for high school students dropped below 79 percent.

Another example: Baltimore City Schools had a $1.7 billion budget in 2024, but only 10% of students scored a passing grade in math. In other words, 90% of students were not meeting the basic requirements, despite taxpayers pouring nearly $2 billion into this ineffective system.

As the West continues to slide into the abyss of undeclared civil war and social decay, the rest of the world is leaving it behind.

Participants from different countries pose on the red carpet against the backdrop of a cityscape during the official meeting.

This week, the Shanghai Cooperation Organization is holding a major meeting on creating a global village to replace fascist world dictatorship.

Yang Sheng, former editor-in-chief of the Global Times, explains: "The SCO is built on mutual trust, respect and EQUALITY, which cannot be found in Western-led organizations that only listen to one big boss – the US."

In an example of the failure of American diplomacy, 50 percent tariffs on many Indian goods, double the current tariffs, went into effect Wednesday as President Donald Trump sought to punish New Delhi for buying Russian oil.

Trump (or someone acting on his behalf) hoped that this would force India into submission. Instead, they dragged the country, which has always leaned toward the West, into the SCO. Trump has tried to speak to Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi by phone four times in recent weeks, but he has not answered, the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung reports.

Modi is also angered by the KhM's attempt to spark a war between India and Pakistan by staging a terror attack. At a recent Indian military seminar, the general said, "Countries hostile to New Delhi were trying to replicate in India [the US-led coup] what happened in Bangladesh. He said the year-long peasant uprising, the CAA protests and the situation in Manipur are part of a larger plan to destabilise the country and prevent it from modernising."

It is part of a wider battle for South and Southeast Asia that is raging between the United States and China.

The battle for control of Indonesia is currently raging between the US and China. Indonesia has the largest population (286 million) and the largest GDP in Southeast Asia ($1.4 trillion in 2024).

Here's what our contacts on the ground say:

"One of the main financiers is an Indonesian Chinese who has controlled the oil trade in and out of Indonesia for the last few decades. He was convicted of several corruption offenses. He is now on the run and hiding in Singapore. He is a billionaire. China is supporting this revolution.

The Indonesian president has the backing and support of the American "deep state." Many government officials have fled the country to Singapore, Australia, and China. They don't want to hang from lamp posts. That will create momentum this week.

Another source said: "It looks like a lot of people will be shot tomorrow. The regional police chief has prepared live ammunition and rubber bullets."

A third source said: "The government/police are targeting the Chinese again... because they have money."

He adds: "Remember when current President Prabowo Subianto headed the Kopassus special forces in 1997, more than 400 university students disappeared and were never seen again. During the Asian financial crisis, students protested for weeks. Police and soldiers raped Chinese women on the streets and nothing was done to stop it."

In Indonesia, parliament buildings are already being burned and the Chinese are being attacked.

Thailand and Myanmar are also engulfed in civil wars.

In Japan, slave Prime Minister Shigeru Ishiba is also pushing the WEF agenda. He has initiated mass immigration to Japan, which has led to chaos, as seen in the video below. Japanese right-wing sources close to the Emperor claim, "Ishiba is a walking dead man."

In contrast to all this Western chaos, we look at these young Russians singing together in St. Petersburg.

Another example of how technology is leaving the West far behind is Russia's largest manufacturer of locomotives and railway equipment, Transmashholding, which presented a project for the country's first passenger train powered by hydrogen fuel cells.

The West must overthrow the KhM or perish.
