Trump has faded into the background and Howard Lutnick is now the de facto dictator of the United States.

The U.S. military, government, and other officials must realize that their president has been removed and replaced by a fraudulent impersonator. Based on the actions of this "president" since his removal in June, it appears that Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick (pictured), of 9/11 fame, is now the de facto president of the United States.

The Khazarian mafia unwittingly proved this by sending their fake Trump to meet with mass murderers like Bill Gates and child molesters like Mark Zuckerberg and Rockefeller. This requires immediate and decisive action.

Even if the US military can't extricate itself from its increasingly stupid situation and restore the republic it swore to protect, this hoax will still collapse. The evidence is now overwhelming.

Let's start with the fake Trump meeting with tech executives. In the video below, where he says "I'm still here," he can be seen sitting next to Mark Zuckerberg, who we learn is Melania Trump. Note that Trump, who is 6'3", is shorter than Mark Zuckerberg, who is 5'8". Also note that Melania, who is 6'3", appears to be the same height as Mark Zuckerberg, so it looks like they found a fake Melania who is shorter.

If you need further proof, look at "Trump" standing next to Polish President Karol Nawrocki in the White House, with fighter jets flying overhead. President Nawrocki is 178 cm tall.

By the way, Navrotsky ordered the removal of the EU flag from his office, and now other officials have followed his example.

Can we remove the Israeli flags from the US State Department buildings that have been there for decades?

Either way, the military needs to ask the question immediately: Where is the real 6'3" Trump? The US Open tennis tournament tried to show a tall man in a mask to make it seem like the real Trump was still around, but it wasn't fooling anyone.

Apparently, the people realize that the Trump they elected to "drain the swamp" has either disappeared or failed them. The real Trump will be paraded before huge, adoring crowds. The fake Trump must hide behind bulletproof glass, and the Broadcasters Association has issued the following order to the propaganda media:

In terms of broadcast, the President will be broadcast on the World Feed and Ashe Court Feed during the inauguration. We ask all broadcasters to refrain from showing any interference or reactions to the President's presence in any capacity, including ENG [electronic news feed] broadcasts."

If you're still not convinced, ask why "Trump" met with mass murderer Bill Gates. In the satirical video below, Gates tells the truth about his actions.

Mass murder aside, Gates is more than just a tech mogul. Now he's linked to a data leak that gave Beijing the keys to America's military headquarters. That's treason, a capital offense:

The Pentagon wasn't hit with missiles. It was hacked through the cloud of Microsoft, the empire built by globalist Bill Gates. Chinese nationals masquerading as "tech support" were given access. They didn't sneak in. They were invited. They were on Gates' payroll.

Pete Hegseth didn't wait. He pressed the emergency button and launched a military audit of Microsoft and the entire cloud management.

"It's Over" - Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth launches FULL-SCALE INVESTIGATION into Microsoft for using CCP-linked engineers for US Army and Pentagon cloud projects.

US military action against Microsoft has already begun with the cutting of Microsoft's undersea cables that carried information to China. This news about Microsoft's cloud service being disrupted is likely related to that:

A series of undersea cable outages in the Red Sea have disrupted internet connections in several countries, including India and Pakistan, with "faults in the SMW4 and IMEWE cable systems near Jeddah, Saudi Arabia" being the cause.

According to sources in the US Department of Defense, the American military and the White Hats will now focus on Canadian Minister of Crime Prevention Mark Carney.

Apparently, Carney helped the real Trump disappear when he visited Canada for the G7 summit in early July. Remember, the short, fat Trump left the summit early to start a war with Iran that resulted in one of the greatest military defeats in U.S. history.

Since then, his government has become a nightmare, leaving the United States more isolated than at any time in its history.

As proof of this:

US mail traffic has fallen by more than 80% after the Trump administration ended tariff breaks for cheap imports, the UN postal agency said on Saturday.

Eighty-eight postal operators have notified the UPU that they are suspending some or all mail services to the United States.

Think about it, over 80% of the world's countries have stopped sending mail to the US. You couldn't get a more isolated situation.

Another example of US isolation is that "Trump" was forced to write: "Looks like we have lost India and Russia to deepest, darkest China. May they have a long and prosperous future together!"

That came after Indian refiner Indian Oil Corp (IOC.NS) refused to buy American oil in its latest bid. India also stopped buying American weapons, aircraft and other products in response to Lutnick's tariffs.

It goes without saying that the United States has found itself isolated, being perceived as nothing more than a colony of the satanic state of Israel.

Here you see an American soldier in uniform, who says that his superiors told him that he was a threat to national security because he posted on social media condemning Israel's genocide in Gaza. He reminds us that he took an oath to defend the United States, not Israel. The rest of the military is also obligated to uphold that oath and take action against its greatest enemy, which is, of course, Israel.

The key moment will be the Epstein case. It is clear that the fake Trump is losing his grip on power. Last week, "Trump" wrote: "It is time to end the Democrats' Epstein hoax and give Republicans credit for their fantastic, even legendary, work."

Speaker Johnson then claimed that "Trump" was an FBI informant trying to frame Jeffrey Epstein.

"How can Trump be an FBI informant, fabricating a fake? How stupid do they think people are? Guys, nothing to see here," comments a doctor at the Pentagon.

Whatever happens, it won't pass.

The man wearing glasses looks serious, probably during a conference or meeting.

Rep. Thomas Massie just named billionaire John Paulson (pictured) as the first person in Epstein's "black book" of victims. "Let me give you the name of one of the billionaires who has spent $2 million on advertising in my district since I started this initiative," Massie said. "His name is John Paulson. He's a hedge fund manager and a major donor to the Republican Party, a major donor to the Speaker of the House, a major donor to the presidential campaign, and he's in Epstein's black book."

Rep. Thomas Massie names major GOP donor John Paulson, who is allegedly listed in Epstein's "Black Book." Paulson accuses the billionaire of funding a campaign to destroy him.

Here are Epstein's unedited flight logs. Everyone on this list needs to be arrested and interrogated.

For those who don't want to read the whole list: Isaac Kappy "committed suicide" on May 14th after naming the names of elite members involved in human trafficking, satanic torture, cannibalism, etc.

Here are some of the names he gave us:

Representative Ro Khanna said that with just 1% of Epstein's documents released, 212 congressional Democrats and four Republicans — Thomas Massie, Marjorie Taylor Greene, Nancy Mace and Lauren Boebert — are just two votes away from forcing the Justice Department to release all Epstein-related documents.

At this time, Joachim Hagopian reports:

The White House issued a statement that could easily be interpreted as a threat to any House Republican considering joining the 216 members of Congress already demanding the Justice Department release the documents, calling it a "deeply hostile act toward the administration." Given how rotten the system is today, it is unwilling to sacrifice itself by admitting the truth. Satanic evil is too deeply entrenched in this degenerate, ZOG-infused sewer to ever gain control.

James O'Keefe of Project Veritas caught Justice Department Deputy Director Joseph Schnitt on camera as he openly admitted to having sex on a date:

Deputy Director of Justice Admits Government Will 'Remove All Republicans' While 'All Liberals and Democrats' on Epstein's Client List Will Remain. Ghislaine Maxwell Moved to Less-Security Prison as 'Perk'... to Keep Her from Introducing Herself'... 'She [Maxwell] Was Moved to a Minimum-Security Prison... This Is Against BOP Policy Because She Is a Convicted Sex Offender.'

What readers can do is reach out to the masses, to all the politicians who are trying to block the release of the Epstein documents, and tell them that they will go to jail if they continue to protect Satanists who abuse children.

Incidentally, Epstein cases like these are nothing new. In 2007, President George W. Bush stymied an investigation into a Washington, D.C., pedophile ring by ordering his top adviser, Karl Rove, to fire the eight U.S. attorneys who were investigating.

It was under Bush Jr. that serious attacks on the world's population using biological weapons began. This means that readers can also help by insisting on the truth about COVID-19 and the mass destruction of vaccines. As a reminder, it was all a hoax. Check out this chart showing how the flu was renamed COVID to force people to take toxic vaccines.

It is clear that the fake Trump is looking for a way out of this situation. He wrote: "I hope Operation Warp Speed was as 'brilliant' as many say. If not, we all want to know why."

So, essentially, he's saying, "I thought I was helping save lives, but if it turns out I was a mass murderer, it's because the vaccine makers lied to me."

A visibly spooked Pfizer CEO Albert Bourla on Wednesday called Trump's Operation Warp Speed "a significant public health achievement... Such an achievement would normally be worthy of a Nobel Prize given its significant impact," Bourla said.

No, Bourla, it's worth the noose.

Trump is also trying to distract people by sending troops into American cities. He posted "Apocalypse Now" which he renamed "Chipocalypse Now... I love the smell of deportations in the morning... Chicago will soon know why they call it the Department of War."

Since Chicago is the home base of Barack "Satan's Thunder" Obama Hitler, perhaps this move is aimed at Obama. One can only hope that it is.

A possible example is the explosion of a motorboat off the coast of Venezuela, 2,000 miles off its coast, in which the US claimed it belonged to a non-existent drug cartel. In fact, the US has seven military bases in Colombia from which it monitors the country's cocaine industry. In other words, it wasn't about drugs, it was about eliminating Clinton/Obama/Rockefeller drug money.

In another sign of Rockefeller's isolation, West Point canceled an awards ceremony for actor Tom Hanks.

That's because Hanks is a member of the satanic Rockefeller family, as these photos illustrate.

The Rockefeller family is definitely going down the drain, as their American businesses are still going bankrupt. The people in the fake Trump administration under Lutnick don't even know basic math, because they figure $30 billion in customs revenue in July will cover a $300 billion budget deficit that month, not to mention a $78 billion trade deficit. They are clearly clutching at straws when bankruptcy is already looming over them.

The US is desperately trying to start a war to distract attention from this bankruptcy. For a long time, it was planned to start a limited war or cold war with China to support the military industry.

But when China staged the largest military parade in world history last week, it abandoned the idea.

These videos from the parade speak for themselves:

China is incredibly strong.

They also abandoned plans to attack Russia, lost the war with Iran, and are now looking for even weaker adversaries. It's no surprise that U.S. defense officials are proposing to shift the focus of U.S. military policy away from China and instead focus on perceived threats in Latin America and the Caribbean, Politico reported on Sept. 6.

This belligerence may also be an attempt to distract the public from the truth about the government's mass murder via vaccines. The truth is now inevitably coming out, as Robert F. Kennedy Jr. fired 17 members of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's vaccine advisory panel in an effort to "depoliticize" the committee. That means science, i.e., the truth, will inevitably expose the pharmaceutical industry for its mass murder. "We are the sickest country in the world, so we have to fire people from the CDC," Kennedy said.

He said, "The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) lists on its website the ten greatest achievements of medical science: one is abortion, one is fluoridation, one is vaccines... there is, I would say, a deep-seated resentment within the agency."

Pharmaceutical companies have been bribing politicians but suffered a crushing failure last week in their attempt to undermine R.J.K. Kennedy Jr.'s approval ratings.

During a heated debate with Senator Elizabeth Warren, Kennedy said, "I know you took $855,000 from drug companies, Senator!" Then Secretary Kennedy spoiled it for Ron Wyden: RFK: "You've been sitting in that chair for 25 years while the rate of chronic disease in our children has gone up to 76%, and you haven't said anything."

🔥 Secretary of State Kennedy just DESTROYED Ron Wyden:

Wyden: "I hope you will tell the American people how many preventable child deaths are an acceptable sacrifice."

RFK: "You sat in this chair for 25 years while the rate of chronic diseases in our children rose to 76%, and you said nothing."

RFK Jr.: Says, "We are ending research into functional enhancement [i.e., biological weapons], mutilating surgeries on children, and cutting back on animal testing... We are addressing the problem of cell phones in schools... sickle cell anemia, hepatitis C, the chemical spill in eastern Palestine (USA), and many, many other problems."

Robert Kennedy Jr. is working to restore health in the Five Eyes region. Dr. Aseem Malhotra, chief adviser to Kennedy's Make America Healthy Again campaign, will speak at Reform UK to claim that mRNA COVID-19 vaccines are causing "turbocancer" in young people.

Malhotra claims that "serious injuries or deaths as a result of the COVID-19 vaccine are in the millions worldwide."

Nigel Farage, leader of Reform UK, is reported to be backing Malhotra's proposal to suspend vaccinations. Richard Tice has called for a national inquiry into vaccine harm, saying: "We need an inquiry not just into excess deaths but into vaccine harm."

RFK Jr. is also implicated in the horrific deaths of 476,000 children during Obiden's rule.

What matters is that these are people who hold or will soon hold official positions in government, where they can actually start making arrests.

In addition to removing the fake Trump, the white hats are close to regime change in the UK, France, Germany, Canada and elsewhere.

A woman with long red hair, dressed in a beige jacket, looks serious as she talks about the tax scandal.

In the UK, Deputy Prime Minister and Housing Secretary Angela Rayner has resigned. It will be the start of a turbulent period for the government and the Labour Party that could plunge both parties into further chaos and gloom.

Now Nigel Farage, the leader of the Reform UK party who was robbed of victory in the last UK election, is being called "unpatriotic" by blackmailer, paedophile and crime minister Keir Starmer for complaining that his government is jailing people for loving their country, flying its flag and speaking their minds.

Under HM blackmail, 12,183 people were arrested in the UK in 2023 for OFFENSIVE POSTS. US Congressman Jim Jordan claims governments across Europe are doing the same.

Our MI6 sources now say that Starmer and his government are scheduled to resign in October, not September as they had previously stated.

France is also clearly on the brink of regime change. The country faces the prospect of a fifth prime minister in less than two years, an economic crisis and the threat of more civil unrest if the parliamentary deadlock is not broken in the coming days.

On Monday afternoon, French MPs will debate a vote of no confidence in the country's current Prime Minister Francois Bayrou.

This leaves French President Emmanuel Macron with two bad choices:

Try to form a third minority government by teaming up with politicians from the centre and the left, which will most likely fail again.

Invoking Article 16 of the French constitution, which grants him temporary dictatorial powers in the event of a crisis. However, parliament must review these powers every 60 days and can revoke them. If Macron resists, he could be forced to resign.

Our sources in French intelligence are asking the White Hats and others not to assassinate Macron because he is so hated that his presence would bring about regime change. His party currently has only 13% support. The plan is to force him to use his emergency dictatorial powers to force his resignation and change the French constitution.

Macron, or rather his boss Jean Michel de Rothschild, aka Brigitte Macron, hopes to start a war to avoid losing power and going to prison.

French hospitals were informed of a large-scale war in March of the following year and were called upon to prepare hospital beds for 50,000 people.

Our French sources tell us that the Rothschilds are planning to finance an American expeditionary force to land in Bordeaux, France, and then march with French troops into Poland to provoke Russia. This crazy plan would put an end to Rothschild rule in France.

Japan has already undergone regime change. Prime Minister Shigeru Ishiba recently resigned after being blackmailed into a treacherous trade deal with the United States. He promised that Japan would invest $550 billion in the United States by January 19, 2029, the end of Trump's second term.

Regarding the selection of investment projects, the memorandum states that an investment committee chaired by the U.S. Secretary of Commerce will recommend projects that will then be selected by the president. The investment committee will not include any Japanese representatives.

U.S. Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick told CNBC that Trump has "complete discretion" over where Japanese investment goes.

A sign that this blackmail deal will go nowhere:

"Japan's top trade negotiator Ryosei Akazawa abruptly canceled his trip to Washington on Thursday as the two sides remain at odds over the rice issue," the Nikkei newspaper reported.

The Japanese are more angry than I have ever seen them, and it is obvious that there is a revolution going on. Furthermore, the Japanese are so ruined by the Khazarian mafia that they do not have $550 billion to give to the United States.

The situation is similar in Europe. The White House wrote:

"Under a comprehensive deal with the European Union, the EU agreed to buy $750 billion worth of American energy and invest $600 billion in new investment in the United States by 2028, while accepting a 15 percent tariff and charging zero percent to American companies."

Germany's economy shrank by 4.5% in real terms last year, while France and other countries are facing similar problems. They simply don't have $1.35 trillion to hand over.

In fact, according to Polish intelligence and other sources, Europe has already reached an agreement with Russia and is preparing to abandon the United States.

Here you can see a map sent to us by Australian intelligence that shows exactly how Ukraine will be divided between Poland, Romania, Hungary and Russia under this agreement.

Polish intelligence reports that "no significant changes have been observed in the movements of Russian troops on the front line. However, there is a threat from Russia to Austria. This is due to the flight of Nazis there after the defeat in the war in Ukraine."

Speaking of the Nazis, it looks like they are about to lose their satanic representative Javier Milei in Argentina. Milei is facing the most difficult period of his 21 months in office, with corruption charges against his sister and the president's chief of staff, Karina Milei. An emergency meeting was held at Argentina's Casa Rosada on Saturday after an audio recording leaked of Diego Spagnuolo, the head of the national agency for the disabled, alleging that Karina Milei and other senior officials were involved in corruption in the procurement of medicines and other services.

In addition, fights, stone and bottle throwing were reported at Milei's rally on Wednesday.

Milei is also grappling with a crisis of confidence in financial markets that has sent the dollar soaring and forced the government to intervene in the market through the Treasury Department on Tuesday.

If Milei falls, the Nazis of KM will lose one of their last refuges.

Another Nazi who has come under attack is Canada's Minister of Crime, Mark Carney. Overall, the regime has killed more than 60,000 Canadians in Canada. In one high-profile case, a social worker rejected a disabled veteran's request to install a wheelchair lift in his home and instead offered euthanasia.

This is proof that Canada is being taken over by Nazis who advocate the killing of "worthless owners" or unproductive people as they define them.

Canada has lost over 100,000 jobs in two months, and yet Carney said 48 hours ago that we need MORE temporary foreign workers. That's not a government. That's a clown show under a collapsing tent.

Canada's net immigration figures have been released and the numbers are staggering, as this chart shows.

Graph showing Canada's net international migration from 1952 to 2025, with a sharp increase visible in the data after 2020.

This isn't about importing skilled workers who contribute to society, as it once was. Canada's Temporary Foreign Worker Immigration Program is envisioning the mass immigration of some of the least educated people in the world. Not only do most of the jobs they come here for require no education or skills, but the fastest-growing group of immigrants are those who don't even have a high school diploma.

A chart showing the number of temporary work permits issued to foreign workers in Canada, broken down by education level, from 2015 to 2024.

We called Carney's press office last week, but they refused to confirm the "Dragon Family's" offer of unlimited funding to help Canada and the United States rebuild their hard-hit economies, a clear sign that Carney is working against the Five Eyes intelligence community.

In another sign that Canada is under criminal control, Ontario Premier Doug Ford just called on all of Canada to ditch Crown Royal whiskey and essentially boycott it, as little of their business is moving to the U.S. Here you can see the massive Crown Royal distillery that Ford wants to locate in nearby Lake Winnipeg.

Aerial view of a large industrial complex surrounded by greenery and a body of water in the background.

You may have forgotten, but Doug Ford succeeded his brother Rob Ford. Rob, the former mayor of Toronto, likely died from a carcinogenic poison. He died of cancer at age 46 after refusing to support the KM program. At his funeral, his family released the following statement:

The family will not make any statements to the media or answer questions .

This is a clear sign that they were offered the usual "silver or lead" (bullet or bribe) that the KM offers to people they want to enslave.

Remember, we are fighting a war to avoid the permanent enslavement of humanity by the KM.

Right now, UN member states and officials in New York are negotiating a new draft of the 2030 Agenda. It's a globalist plan to take over your life – combining censorship, digital surveillance, radical ideology and top-down control into a permanent system, warns CitizenGo. Officials are negotiating a declaration that would implement the plan in laws, education, courts and funding – without your consent, they say.

By contrast, Russian President Vladimir Putin and Chinese President Xi Jinping, both 72, were captured on CCTV during an open mic moment in China at the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation, casually talking about living to 150 – or perhaps forever.

Censorship issues arise after Chinese state media removed footage of Xi Jinping and Putin discussing organ transplants

The rights group said the conversation "raises concerns about forced organ harvesting from prisoners of conscience."

China's state broadcaster has blocked international news agencies from accessing an open-mic video of Chinese and Russian leaders discussing longevity and organ transplants, an effort critics say demonstrates the Chinese regime's fear of attention to the topic.

An open exchange of views between Russian President Vladimir Putin and Chinese leader Xi Jinping took place in Beijing on September 3, when the two leaders walked together ahead of a military parade commemorating World War II.

During the parade, Xi Jinping told Putin, "Today, at 70, you are still a child," to which Putin responded that further organ transplants could allow people to live younger and even achieve immortality. Xi Jinping responded that people were expected to live to 150.

The exchange made international news and sparked discussions about state-sanctioned forced organ harvesting, a taboo in China. CCTV subsequently removed the live feed that captured the exchange and removed the moment from replays.

CCTV also sent a letter through its lawyer to Reuters (which licensed the video through CCTV and edited it into a four-minute clip) asking the news agency to remove the footage on the grounds that the clips published by Reuters went beyond the agreed scope.

CCTV lawyer He Denning said "Reuters' editorial handling of this material resulted in a clear distortion of the facts and statements in the licensed broadcast."

So, we have a faction that controls the Western world and wants to enslave humanity forever, and a planetary alliance that seeks immortality. Take your pick.
